ST. JOHN'S
EPISCOPAL CHURCH

DOUBTS ARE OKAY.
QUESTIONS ARE WELCOME.
PLEASE COME AS YOU ARE.

www.stjohnsdbq.org

Welcome to St. John's. We're glad you're here. If this is your first time or one of your first times, thanks for checking us out. We know you won't understand everything we are doing. That is ok. Participate as you feel comfortable. Take in our historic beautiful church and start to get to know our friendly people. If you have any questions don't hesitate to ask one of our ushers or one of us.

Father Kevin Goodrich OP, Pastor Mother Susan Forshey SCP, Associate Pastor

Restrooms for men and women, as well as an individual gender-neutral restroom are located downstairs. There is an elevator. For questions about finding the restrooms ask an usher, who are the people wearing nametags. Also, you can follow the signs.

We love kids at our worship services. Our congregation understands that kids will be kids. We aren't bothered by their wiggling, giggling, and other antics. Many of us have experience with an energetic or upset child. We get it. We have a children's area in the back that you are free to use as you choose. There are activities there for children to use on an individual basis. All children through elementary age are invited to come forward early in the service for a short Children's Sermon. After that they may return to their seats or join the rest of the children in the back tower room for Sunday School. The children return to the service, joining their families at what is called "The Peace."

Please silence and refrain from using your phone, including texting. When people use their phones, it can distract other worshippers and communicate untended disrespect for what is happening in our sacred space. Obviously, if you are on call for work or dealing with an emergency, please discreetly use your phone as necessary. We believe it's healthy to unplug from technology and plug into God and into the community of people around us. On occasions where photos might be appropriate, please check with one of the priests first.

Use this worship guide (bulletin) to participate in worship. It follows the Book of Common Prayer (red books in the pew racks) which is used by Episcopal/Anglican Christians in over 165 countries. It is rooted in ancient patterns of worship which connect us to people throughout history and throughout the world. The service is divided into two parts: The Liturgy of the Word (Bible lessons, sermon, and prayers) and the Liturgy of the Altar (Holy Communion, also known as "The Lord's Supper," "Eucharist" and "Mass"). All baptized Christians may receive, for more information about Communion, including kids and Communion, read the text box later in this bulletin entitled, "About Holy Communion at St. John's." Some of the music we sing is included in this bulletin. Some of it is included in the blue hymnals in the pew racks.

Welcome to those of you joining us on Zoom. In-person worshippers will not be seen or heard clearly unless they sit near or stand in front of the camera.

For more information about St. John's see the back pages of this bulletin

Processional Hymn All creatures of our God and King v.1-4

Hymn 400, Blue Book

Opening Sentences

pg. 355, Book of Common Prayer

Celebrant: Alleluia. Christ is risen.

People: The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia.

Celebrant: Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

People: Amen.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Celebrant: O God, whose blessed Son made himself known to his disciples in the breaking of bread: Open the eyes of our faith, that we may behold him in all his redeeming work; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Lessons from Holy Scripture

The First Lesson Acts 3:12-19

Peter addressed the people, “You Israelites, why do you wonder at this, or why do you stare at us, as though by our own power or piety we had made him walk? The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, the God of our ancestors has glorified his servant Jesus, whom you handed over and rejected in the presence of Pilate, though he had decided to release him. But you rejected the Holy and Righteous One and asked to have a murderer given to you, and you killed the Author of life, whom God raised from the dead. To this we are witnesses. And by faith in his name, his name itself has made this man strong, whom you see and know; and the faith that is through Jesus has given him this perfect health in the presence of all of you.

“And now, friends, I know that you acted in ignorance, as did also your rulers. In this way God fulfilled what he had foretold through all the prophets, that his Messiah would suffer. Repent therefore, and turn to God so that your sins may be wiped out.”

Lector: The Word of the Lord. People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 4

1 Oh, how good and pleasant it is, *
when brethren live together in unity!

2 It is like fine oil upon the head *
that runs down upon the beard,

3 Upon the beard of Aaron, *
and runs down upon the collar of his robe.

4 It is like the dew of Hermon * that falls upon the hills of Zion.

5 For there the LORD has ordained the blessing: *
life for evermore.

The Second Lesson 1 John 3:1-7

See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

Everyone who commits sin is guilty of lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. You know that he was revealed to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. No one who abides in him sins; no one who sins has either seen him or known him. Little children, let no one deceive you. Everyone who does what is right is righteous, just as he is righteous.

Lector: The Word of the Lord. People: Thanks be to God.

Children's Sermon

All children through elementary age, as well as their parents, may come forward for a brief children's sermon with the preacher of the day. Afterwards they may attend Sunday School in the back Tower Room.

Concluding Prayer: Dear God, we thank you for our families, our friends, our St. John's family, and for loving us no matter what, in Jesus Name. Amen.

Gradual Hymn O Love Divine (v.1-2 before the Gospel, v.3 after) Hymn 516, Blue Book

The Gospel Luke 24:36b-48

Deacon or Priest: The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus himself stood among the disciples and said to them, "Peace be with you." They were startled and terrified, and thought that they were seeing a ghost. He said to them, "Why are you frightened, and why do doubts arise in your hearts? Look at my hands and my feet; see that it is I myself. Touch me and see; for a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have.” And when he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. While in their joy they were disbelieving and still wondering, he said to them, “Have you anything here to eat?” They gave him a piece of broiled fish, and he took it and ate in their presence.

Then he said to them, “These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you—that everything written about me in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms must be fulfilled.” Then he opened their minds to understand the scriptures, and he said to them, “Thus it is written, that the Messiah is to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day, and that repentance and forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things.

Deacon or Priest: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Sermon Response and Conversation

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People Form III

Father, we pray for your holy Catholic Church;
That we all may be one.

Grant that every member of the Church may truly and humbly serve you;
That your Name may be glorified by all people.

We pray for all bishops, especially Archbishop Justin Welby, Presiding Bishop Michael Curry, and Bishop Betsey Monnot, as well as all priests, and deacons;
That they may be faithful ministers of your Word and Sacraments.

We pray for all who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world;
That there may be justice and peace on the earth.

Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake.
That our works may find favor in your sight.

We pray for those on our parish prayer list, as well as all who suffer from any grief or trouble;
That they may be delivered from their distress.

Give to the departed eternal rest.
Let light perpetual shine upon them.

We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy;
May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.

Let us pray for our own needs and those of others. Silence. Lord, hear our prayers.

We pray for those celebrating birthdays and anniversaries this week. (silence) Lord, hear our prayers.

We pray for wisdom in understanding the topics in our current sermon series, “Faith in the Future” and we also pray that the series will draw people closer to you, to this church, or a church in our local community. Lord, hear our prayers.

The Celebrant adds a concluding Collect.

Celebrant: Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence may be kept.

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,

have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant: Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen

The Peace

Celebrant: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People: And also with you.

Children return from Sunday School. A testimony or other element may be shared at this time. people are given time to fill out connection cards. Instructions about Holy Communion follow. Birthdays & Anniversaries are noted.

About Holy Communion at St. John's Episcopal Church

All baptized and professing Christians (Roman Catholic, Orthodox, Protestant, etc.) are welcome to receive Holy Communion at St. John's. If you are not baptized or not ready to receive you may still come forward to the altar rail, cross your arms over your chest and receive a blessing. We believe to receive Holy Communion is to encounter God in a special way, to encounter the real presence of Jesus Christ and to receive a special outpouring of the Holy Spirit. To receive Communion is to renew your commitment to Christ and His way.

You are encouraged to kneel at the altar rail to receive but may stand if it is more comfortable for you. To receive the bread, cup your hands. To receive the wine, either receive from the larger common cup OR take the small cup from the priest then return it in the bowl to the assisting minister. The full benefits of the sacrament are available by just receiving the bread. Parents, please let the priest know if your children are receiving communion or would like to receive a blessing. If you need gluten free bread inform the priest prior to the Mass or at the altar rail. If you would like to receive but cannot come forward, please inform an usher and a priest will come to you.

Offertory Song Shout to the Lord

My Jesus, my Savior
Lord, there is none like You
All of my days, I want to praise
The wonders of Your mighty love
My Comfort, my Shelter
Tower of Refuge and Strength
Let every breath, all that I am
Never cease to worship You

Chorus

Shout to the Lord, All the earth let us sing
Power and majesty, Praise to the King
Mountains bow down, And the sea will roar
At the sound of Your Name

I sing for joy at the work of Your hands
Forever I'll love You, forever I'll stand Nothing compares to
The promise I have in You.

My Jesus, my Savior
Lord there is none like You
All of my days, I want to praise
The wonders of Your mighty love
My Comfort, my Shelter
Tower of Refuge and Strength
Let every breath, all that I am
Never cease to worship You
(chorus)

Connection cards are placed in the offertory plates. Worshippers may give via the plates, online at www.stjohnsdbq.org/give or by mail: 1458 Locust Street, Dubuque, Iowa, 52001.

Offertory Acclamation Praise God

Hymn 380 v.3, Blue Book

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; Praise Him, all creatures here below; Praise Him above, ye heav'nly host; Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost! Amen.

The Holy Communion Rite II, Eucharistic Prayer C

BCP, pg. 372, Red Book

Celebrant: The Lord be with you

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give thanks and praise.

Celebrant: God of all power, Ruler of the Universe, you are worthy of glory and praise.

Glory to you for ever and ever.

At your command all things came to be: the vast expanse of interstellar space, galaxies, suns, the planets in their courses, and this fragile earth, our island home.

By your will they were created and have their being.

From the primal elements you brought forth the human race, and blessed us with memory, reason, and skill. You made us the stewards of creation. But we turned against you, and betrayed your trust; and we turned against one another.

Have mercy, Lord, for we are sinners in your sight.

Again and again, you called us to return. Through prophets and sages you revealed your righteous Law. And in the fullness of time you sent your only Son, born of a woman, to fulfill your Law, to open for us the way of freedom and peace.

By his blood, he reconciled us.

By his wounds, we are healed.

And therefore we praise you, joining with the heavenly chorus, with prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and with all those in every generation who have looked to you in hope, to proclaim with them your glory, in their unending hymn:

Sanctus

S-130, Blue Book

The image shows a musical score for the Sanctus. It consists of two staves, a treble staff on top and a bass staff on the bottom. The key signature is one flat (B-flat) and the time signature is 3/4. The melody is written in a simple, hymn-like style. The lyrics are: "Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow'r and might, Ho - ly, ho - ly,". The word "Ho" is written in blue, "ly" in red, and "Lord" in blue. The word "might," is written in red. The word "Ho" is written in blue, "ly" in red, and "ly," in blue. The music is marked with a piano (pp) dynamic.

The people stand or kneel. Then the Celebrant continues

And so, Father, we who have been redeemed by him, and made a new people by water and the Spirit, now bring before you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ our Lord.

On the night he was betrayed he took bread, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Remembering now his work of redemption, and offering to you this sacrifice of thanksgiving,
We celebrate his death and resurrection, as we await the day of his coming.

Lord God of our Fathers and Mothers: God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; God of Sarah, Rebecca, and Rachel. God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ: Open our eyes to see your hand at work in the world about us. Deliver us from the presumption of coming to this Table for solace only, and not for strength; for pardon only, and not for renewal. Let the grace of this Holy Communion make us one body, one spirit in Christ, that we may worthily serve the world in his name.

Risen Lord, be known to us in the breaking of the bread.

Accept these prayers and praises, Father, through Jesus Christ our great High Priest, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, your Church gives honor, glory, and worship, from generation to generation. People: AMEN.

Celebrant: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen

The Breaking of the Bread

Celebrant: Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

People: Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Communion Songs

Eat this bread, drink this cup, come to Me and never be hungry.

Eat this bread, drink this cup, trust in Me and you will not thirst.

I love you, Lord, and I lift my voice to worship You, O my soul, rejoice.

Take joy, My King, in what you hear. May it be a sweet, sweet, sound in Your ear.

Prayer after Communion

BCP, pg. 365

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food
in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace,
and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart;

through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Our Motto: Doubts are ok, questions are welcome, please, come as you are.

Our Mission: Love God. Love Neighbor. Make disciples.

St. John's Episcopal Church is a family of faith, united at the eucharistic altar, who love God and neighbor (Mark 12:30-31). St. John's pursues this mission in the belief that love transforms lives. The Bible says, "Love is from God" (1 John 4:7) and "Love is God" (1 John 4:8).

Disciples, intentional Christians, love God and love others according to the way of Jesus (Matthew 28:19-20). St. John's celebrates, teaches, and practices this way of life and love within the Episcopal/Anglican Tradition, which unites elements of Catholic and Protestant Christianity, stressing, "in essentials unity, in nonessentials liberty, in all things charity."

Our Vision: A church in downtown Dubuque for the wider region of Dubuque. A lively outpost of faith, welcome, and love, demonstrated in practical ways, positively impacting the lives of parishioners and the wider community. A spiritually rich, Christ-centered congregation.

St. John's will be a lively missionary outpost and supportive family of faith. A church that welcomes the young (children, teens, young adults, and families), as well as adults of all generations and diverse backgrounds to worship, fellowship, service, and discipleship. St. John's will further develop its campus, especially the Parish House, as a Community Center.

St. John's, as individuals and as a congregation, will demonstrate faith in practical and difference making ways for themselves and their Biblical neighbors. The ongoing Kindness Ministry will be part of this witness. St. John's will grow in faith, impact, and sustainability.

Our Rule of Life: Worship Regularly, Pray Daily, Serve at St. John's & Beyond, Love Others & Build Spiritual Friendships, Know the Christian Story & Invite Others, Give Generously, Rest Regularly.

A Rule of Life is an ancient Christian practice from the monastic tradition, now used by Christians from many denominations. A Rule of Life is a shared routine of spiritual practices or what are sometimes called marks of discipleship.

The Rule is a tool. The Rule is a guide to living out the faith for all the baptized. The Rule is not a requirement, but a resource for faith and for passing on the faith to others. The St. John's Rule of Life is broad and adaptable to people in a variety of life situations, stages, and seasons.

Bishop of Iowa
